

19th International Symposium of Adapted Physical Activity

Martin Block

Martin Block is a Professor in Kinesiology in the Curry School of Education at the University of Virginia where he teaches courses in adapted physical education. He is the author of over 70 peer reviewed articles, 14 chapters in books, and 5 books on adapted physical education and motor development including A Teachers' Guide to Including Students with Disabilities in General Physical Education (3rd edition) and Developmental and Adapted Physical Activity Assessment. Dr. Block also has been a consultant with Special Olympics, Inc., since 1988, where he was the primary author of the Motor Activities Training Program (MATP), a sports program for athletes with severe intellectual disabilities. Finally, Dr. Block serves as the Coordinator of the Adapted Physical Education Module for the European Masters Program in Adapted Physical Activity, and he recently became a consultant for the new Adapted Physical Activity Research Center at Beijing Sport University in China.

Contact Information:

Martin E. Block, Ph.D., Professor
Kinesiology Program, University of Virginia
210 Emmet St., S. Box 400407
Charlottesville, VA 22904-4407
p. 434-924-7073; e. meb7u@virginia.edu